Why Not a Fashion Show?

With the exception of the "Kiddies Carnival" which the Outdoor Circle is planning for next month it looks as though the season is to be fairly gone through without a single amateur entertainment of any kind.

While discussing this sad state of affairs the other day with several of the maids in the younger set, together with one or two of the season's young matrons, someone suggested that a Fashion Show would be a novel benefit entertainment. It seems that the little lady who suggested this sort of "party" has just returned from Oakland where plans were being made during her visit there for a Fashion Show for the Ladies' Relief Society. Letters received from there have told of the wonderful success of the affair, in which many of Oakland's fashionable matrons and maids took part.

Mrs. James McCandless, who until spring was pretty Miss Marion Redolph, played the part of the bride, and with a coterie of her young friends attracted much attention in the bridal party. Miss Carmen Ghirardelli, who is also known in Honolulu, appeared with a group of young women in handsome evening gowns, and her sister, Miss Eva Ghirardelli, wore a sporting costume. There were ladies in morning suits and nifty fall suits, while cunning little children appeared during the afternoon showing the newest frocks for tots.

The Oakland Fashion Show took place in the ball room of the Hotel Oakland, which was transformed into an attractive Parisian garden for the occasion, and the living models who strolled through the "avenues" created quite a sensation.

Outdoor Circle's Garden Party.

Naturally the coming garden party is absorbing everybody. Not only is the object one dear to the heart of every man, woman and child who has a mite of civic pride, but the details of each booth must be planned and that done with exceeding care, for the people of Honolulu are truly critical. Each lady will evolve something worth while, and the women of this paradise have the reputation of doing the best possible in whatever they undertake. The tickets are already on sale by a set of mighty willing workers. The little lot have all been promised a free ticket for each 10 they dispose of and great indeed is the activity. Mrs. James Bicknell is heading this most important committee, and from past experience great results are looked for in the ticket sale.

The following boys and girls are working like beavers to see who can sell the greatest number of tickets: Carol Moore, Eloise Moore, Marguerite Ault, Margaret Trotter, Miriam Sinclair.

Mrs. F. J. Lindeman and Mrs. Stanley Stevenson are working out a plan for decorating the grounds and for arranging the erection of the various booths and smaller gardens. Their task is a large one. The grounds will lend themselves most artistically to decoration, in fact they are so attractive that very little will be needed except the artistic placing of each concession. The Atherton grounds are so large that there will be no fear of overcrowding, and each and every sale depot will be accessible to the crowd, no matter how large. The King street cars will pass the gate and the Punahou and Beretania cars are within a short block of the place.

Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson Entertains Complimenting Miss Ethel Whiting. Complimenting Miss Ethel Whiting, who left in the Mauna on Tuesday, Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson entertained at a prettily appointed tea at her home on Monday afternoon. Yellow and green was the scheme used by Mrs. Robertson and was carried out with green vines and the attractive Orlanda flower. Mrs. Robertson delighted the guests with a few songs, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Geoffrey Podmore. After the musical numbers the guests were ushered into the dining room and were seated at small tables. At each place there was a yellow lei to which was tied a tiny white boat signifying Miss Whiting's departure. The popular Honolulu girl expects to visit friends and relatives on the coast and will remain on the mainland for some months. Among Mrs. Robertson's guests were Mrs. Almoku Dominis, Mrs. Geoffrey Podmore, Miss Myrtle Schuman, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Dorothy Guild, Miss Ruth McClesney, Mrs. Robert Hair, Mrs. James Dougherty, Miss Grace Robertson, Miss Thelma Murphy, Mrs. Robert Shingle, Miss Abby Buchanan, Miss Harriet Young, Mrs. Jaeger and others.

Party at the Outrigger Club.

The usual crowd of young folks are spending this afternoon and evening at the Outrigger Canoe Club. After a swim and surf ride they will enjoy a picnic supper under one of the haw tree pergolas and then resort to dancing in the new pavilion to the strains furnished by a Hawaiian quintet. The party will be chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. W. F. S. Hawk. Among those invited are Miss Mid Hawk, Miss Dorothy Hawk, Miss Helen Center, Miss Mae Walker, Miss Dorothy Walker, Miss Florence White, Miss Florence Davis, Miss Louise Gilvin, Miss Clemence Gifford, Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Ruth Stacker, Miss Miriam Stacker, Miss Gertrude Ripley, Miss Peggy Richards, Miss Gladys Traut, Miss Dorothy Winter, Miss Ilma Woods, Miss Rachel Woods, Miss Peggy Briand, Miss Rhoda Ballentyne, Sam Carter, Frederick Carter, John Gifford, John O'Dowda, Gustave Ballentyne, Lorrie Thurston, George Lind-

Society Cabaret Being Planned.

Madame Lester and Gordin Campbell, who have come here from Vancouver to teach Honolulu the new dance steps, are planning to have a society cabaret, a new form of entertainment which is very popular in the East just now. There have been subscription dances, "the dansants" with occasional exhibitions by society people, but here is an evening where everyone dances an exhibition and plays cabaret. Perhaps this affair will open the season and be a forerunner for many others.

"Opening the season" used to be a phrase quite foreign to Honolulu society, but times have changed. We are more up-to-date and though there is no set date for a season opening, one or two large affairs are generally given and there are no more dull moments until the Lenten season.

A number of society women who are at present walling away the last golden days at the fair will bring home many new things in entertaining. Mrs. Charles Bromley, Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mrs. George Sherman, Mrs. Gertrude Wilder and others of Honolulu's best-known women will return in the early winter and it is then that gaieties and frivolity will take new life and reign supreme and dancing will be no minor feature.

Second Arleigh Concert Reports Success.

Even more warmly received than on her first appearance, Miss Phoebe Arleigh last night gave the second of two concerts in Charles R. Bishop hall, Punahou. Her first had made many friends for the Honolulu girl who has studied for several years in New York. Her second confirmed their judgment of her ability and proved the scope of her skill.

Several of the numbers played last night appealed more strongly than any of those she rendered at the first concert. Oberthur's exquisite "Loreley" and "Berceuse" were charming. The Russian folk song, "Volga Boatmen," was characteristically bizarre. That delight of harpists, John Thomas' "Minstrel's Lament," and Thomas' "Legend" for harp and piano, were attractively offered.

Miss Pearl Sutherland at the piano shared in the success of the evening. Her accompanying was notably well done. The evening closed with "Aloha Oe" played as an encore.

About the Christian de Guignes.

HILLSBOROUGH, October 2.—My Dear Lady Teazle. Motoring up and down the peninsula yesterday. I exchanged greetings with many popular members of the Country Club colony. Just home from their various summer outings. Mrs. Christian de Guignes and Miss Ysabel Chase were riding in a spirited manner over the Spring Valley reservation and looked smart as usual in their English togs of dull gray tweed. The de Guignes have taken the Lewis P. Hobart residence on Santa Inez avenue for the autumn and winter months. This means pronounced activity in polo circles presently. The de Guignes' string of po-lies, which includes some of Felton Elkins' splendid mounts, has already arrived from Coronado. Mrs. de Guignes and Miss Chase tell me that a tournament among the women polo players is surely going to be one of the important events of the post-exposition days. Mrs. Charles Clark, Mrs. Eugene Murphy, Mrs. Robin Hayne, Mrs. Ward Barron and Mrs. Thomas A. Driscoll are all keen about it, and, of course, enthusiasm is all that is required to make a tremendous success of the affair. —San Francisco Chronicle.

The A. F. Knudsen in Los Angeles. An interesting family is that of A. F. Knudsen, living at Vista Del Mar, in Hollywood. There Sydney Francis Hobson of Australia and New Zealand will give a piano recital of Wagner's "The Flying Dutchman" Saturday, October 16, at 3 o'clock. The pianist-Interpreter will be assisted by the Alaskan soprano, Miss Grace Niece. Patrons from Hollywood, Pasadena and Los Angeles will lend their presence.

Mrs. Knudsen's own family individually owns the island of Nihaui in Hawaii, and the Knudsen ranch, another property, extends over the whole of Waimea on Kauai Island. They have traveled over the world, but came to Southern California when ready to establish a home, selecting the splendid site on Vista del Mar, which overlooks all Los Angeles and Hollywood. They have been in their home but two months. —Los Angeles Times.

Kaimuki Card Club Meets With Mrs. Ray Baker Rietow.

The Kaimuki Card Club met at the home of Mrs. Ray Baker Rietow on Thursday afternoon of this week. Dainty arrangements of vari-colored hibiscus were used in decoration and the usual gay meeting was held. Among the members present were Mrs. Sam Peck, Mrs. Henry Chiplere, Mrs. A. S. Prescott, Mrs. Arthur Thayer, Mrs. Louis Underwood, Mrs. James Guild, Mrs. Ernest Giesecke, Mrs. Floyd Emmans, Mrs. Charles Crane, Mrs. Frank Applin and the hostess.

Surprise Party for Mrs. Louis Underwood.

In honor of Mrs. Louis Underwood's birthday, a number of the Kaimuki folk planned a surprise party on Monday evening for her. The guests danced until late in the evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnstone, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Prescott, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker Rietow, Mr. and Mrs. John Ashley, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bruns, Mr. Cameron, Mr. Arthur Troiet, Mr. W. G. Ashley and W. G. Ashley, Jr.

D. A. R. to Meet.

The Aloha Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet Monday afternoon at half past three with Mrs. Theodore Richards, 902 Kilauea street. Miss Dieckmann of the Y. W. C. A. and Mr. Lloyd Killam of the Y. M. C. A. will present plans for cooperative work along patriotic lines in the training of youth of all nationalities. Visiting daughters from other chapters are cordially invited to be present.

Returned to the Mainland.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Simonsen have returned from a honeymoon spent in Honolulu and San Francisco, Lake Tahoe and other resorts of the north. Mrs. Simonsen was formerly Miss Helen Thresher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Thresher of Westmore-

Country Club Dance.

The night before the full moon, October 21, at 8 p. m., there will be a dance at the Country Club.

Surprise party at Kaimuki.

On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cottrell were the recipients of a very complete and unique surprise party. An invitation to spend the evening at cards with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Welbourne at Kaimuki was accepted. Upon arriving there they were greeted by a house full of friends who showered them with rice and congratulations upon their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The house was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers the color scheme being green and silver.

Cards were played during the first part of the evening. The score cards, silver paper bells, made pretty souvenirs of the occasion. Silver prizes were awarded to those receiving the highest and lowest scores. Mrs. Paul Smith carried off a cold meat fork for the first ladies' prize. Mrs. S. W. Smith received a pair of beauty pins, as hers was the lowest number of points.

Mr. W. A. Welbourne was in the lead for gentlemen, and got a silver-backed clothes brush. Dr. H. Hollmann was made happy with a pickle fork, for a booby prize.

After cards the guests sat down to an elaborate banquet served on the lawn. A large number of beautifully decorated, ornate, silver, coin, etc., were greatly enjoyed. In a hall between the house given and responded to, Capt. Paul Smith stepped forward, and, with most appropriate remarks, presented a silver tea set to the happy couple, a gift from their friends, who were thanked most heartily, and perhaps a little tearfully, by Mr. and Mrs. Cottrell.

Those invited to this delightful affair were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Lyset, Mr. and Mrs. H. Giles, Mrs. S. McKearney, Miss Ada Lyset, Miss Alvina Gill, Miss Black, Mr. and Mr. H. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright, Miss Bertha Lyset, Miss Edith Cottrell, Mrs. Thos. Black, Mr. and Mrs. R. Flax, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Bigelow, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Neal, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ham, Miss Janet Dewar, Miss Jessie Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Ferguson, Mr. and Mr. J. Gribble, Mr. T. Hapsten, Mrs. F. Fyler, Mr. and Mrs. A. Horn, Dr. and Mrs. H. Hollmann, Misses Edith and Gladys Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. de Roe, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Smith, Mr. J. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. James Bicknell, Miss Violet Ferguson, Miss Annie Welbourne, Miss Doreen Bicknell, Capt. and Mrs. Paul Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Welbourne, Mrs. George Johnson.

Engagement Announced in Washington.

From Washington, D. C., has come the announcement of the engagement of a popular girl of the capital and one of Uncle Sam's young ensigns, which will be of interest to the local service folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Kubel announced the engagement of their daughter, Florence Louise, to Ensign John Semer Farnsworth, U. S. N., of Cincinnati, Ohio, at a luncheon given yesterday at their home, 1000 East Capitol street. Ensign Farnsworth is attached to the United States ship Michigan, now at the southern drill point. The marriage will take place in November.

Miss Katherine Paris in the East.

Word has been received from Miss Katherine Paris telling of the very pleasant time she is having at Lake Forest university, Illinois, where she is taking a special course in expression. The pretty auburn-haired Miss Paris is as much of a favorite there as she was during her school days at Punahou academy and in Hillsdale, where she spent the past two years. Just when she will return to Honolulu is not known for she will probably remain away until she has finished her four years' course, and then perhaps (for she is a very clever little actress) she will either give private readings or go on the professional stage.

Miss Joan Sawyer Dances With Lot Kaulukou.

Honolulu's Lot Kaulukou, or Carlos Sebastian, as he is better known in the East, is making quite a sensation this season as the dancing partner of the graceful Joan Sawyer, one of America's foremost exponents of the modern dances. Miss Sawyer is a close rival of Mrs. Vernon Castle and it has been said that this year with Sebastian as her partner she is making even a greater sensation than she did last year.

Dinner-Dance at the Commercial Club. Among the leading social events of this week will be the dinner-dance at the Commercial Club tonight. Responses to the invitations sent out by the club to its members have been so hearty that it is evident the prospect of an evening of varied delights is alluring to the club membership and gives promise that the organization will develop further attractive social events in the future.

The dinner-dance will begin at 7 o'clock in the big, cool dining-room of the club. Kaul's orchestra will furnish music and it is expected that there will be much dancing during the dinner-hour.

Supper will be served a la carte. Many tables have been reserved for small and cozy parties.

Mr. J. M. Young, chairman of the entertainment committee, and Mr. J. E. Shedy, chairman of the affair committee, are in charge of the affair and among those lending active assistance is Mr. C. R. Frazier.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowry Entertain. Complimenting Miss Louise Richards. Miss Louise Richards, the charming house-guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Charles McCord, was honored at a delightful and informal dance at the home of Lieut. and Mrs. Frank J. Lowry on Kakaemoku street on Thursday evening.

Pink and white were the colors used in decoration and these were most effectively carried out. The guests, dressed through three large, open rooms to the strains of a Hawaiian quintet, did not disperse until a late hour, even then reluctantly. At 11:30 delicious refreshments were served on the lawn. Among those who enjoyed Lieut. and Mrs. Lowry's hospitality were: Lieut. and Mrs. Charles McCord, Ensign and Mrs. Howard B. Berry, Ensign and Mrs. Harry Bonuboh, Lieut. and Mrs. Paul Bates, Lieut. and Mrs. Randolph Zane, Lieut. and Mrs. Francis Scanlan, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Kress, Lieut. and Mrs. E. O'Hara, Miss Geraldine Boush, Miss May Weir, Miss Ruth Stacker, Ensign A. S. Walton, Ensign Elroy Vanderkloot, Lieut. Frank Chew and many others.

Miss Eleanor Tay Engaged.

It was with much interest that the Honolulu friends of pretty Miss Eleanor Tay learned this week of her engagement to Jack Edwin Mighell of San Francisco.

Miss Tay has made two visits to Honolulu and on both trips was entertained extensively here. A number of Honolulu's young men paid ardent court to her and at one time it was rumored that she was engaged to one of the popular chaps in the younger set. The San Francisco Examiner says of the engagement:

"Judge and Mrs. Frederick W. Henshaw announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Tay, to Jack Edwin Mighell last Thursday. The wedding will take place the first of the year."

"Miss Tay is one of the belles of the set that made its bow last winter. She is one of society's best exponents of ballroom dancing, and she and Mr. Mighell often danced together, and there is much in being able to harmonize one's steps to one's life partner's. Miss Tay has a certain faultless grace and piquancy which made her as good company as she is satisfying to look upon. Now the two young people have the chance to dance together to their hearts' delight, and every one is pleased with the match. Young Mighell is a son of Capt. William E. Mighell and a brother of Mrs. Adrian Spilvaco."

For Ivan Graham.

One of the very charming affairs of this week is the informal tea and dance at which Mrs. W. M. Graham is entertaining this afternoon in honor of her son, Ensign Ivan Graham of the U. S. S. Maryland, which came into port on Thursday. Mrs. Graham's pretty home on Victoria street has often been the scene of these afternoon dances and those who have been bidden to today's affair are looking forward to it with much pleasure. The large living room and lanai will be decorated with quantities of hibiscus from the home of Val Holt, and music for the dancing will be furnished by the band from the Maryland.

Dance at the Moana Hotel.

In honor of the officers and ladies of the transport Sherman, an enjoyable dance was given at the Moana hotel on Wednesday evening. Guests at the affair included a number of townfolk as well as representatives from the service set. Some among those who were noticed were Captain and Mrs. Jones of Fort Kamehameha, Lieut. and Mrs. William Munter, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Ruth Mc-

Mrs. Howard B. Berry, wife of Lieut. Berry, U. S. N. They will leave Honolulu when the "F" submarines are sent to Mare Island for repairs.

Chesney, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Ruth Richards, Lieut. and Mrs. Sloan, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Lieut. and Mrs. Cyrus T. Green, Dr. Sam Creighton, Guy Buttolph, Dr. L. E. Hooper, Stanley Kennedy, Dr. Jack Peden, Paymaster Harker, Captain Kittelle, Ensign Ritchie, Lieut. Charles Lyman, Lieut. Dorman, Walter Argabrite, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, Vivien Dyer, Lieut. Hindroelst and others.

Miss Harriet Young's Tea. A very informal affair of this week was the tea at which Miss Harriet Young entertained on Friday afternoon. The home of the hostess was prettily decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and ferns. Some among those present were Mrs. Howard Ellis, Mrs. Jameson, Mrs. Matthew Graham, Mrs. William Munter, Mrs. William Greenwell, Miss Myra Angus, Miss Jean Angus, Mrs. William Stanley, Miss Anne Danford, Miss M. Armstrong, Miss Victoria Jordan and Miss Maud Jordan.

Entertainments Planned for the Officers of the Maryland. The coming of the U. S. S. Maryland for another 10 days' stay in Honolulu has again set the wheel of social gaieties in motion, and a number of informal affairs have been planned for the fortnight. The first of the affairs to which a few of the officers were bidden was the dance at which Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Lowry entertained on Thursday evening, and there will be a number of similar functions next week.

With the Maryland came the four submarines of the K flotilla, but, much to the disappointment of the girls in the younger set, with one exception the officers of the submarines are married. At least Dame Rumor has sent forth such a message by one of the other officers—perhaps she is only playing one of her make-believe games, however.

However, the arrival of another contingent of navy women will be welcomed by the service set. But it is with regret that Honoluluans will bid farewell to Mrs. Kirby Crittenden. And though a hearty "aloha" will be extended the new ladies there will always be a place in their hearts for those who leave because of the F boats' departure.

Many Art Lovers Visit. Hitchcock's Studio on Maui. WAILUKU, Oct. 15.—In response to the kind invitation of Howard Hitchcock many lovers of art viewed his fine exhibition of oil paintings of Maui scenery on Friday afternoon at his studio in the Penhalow cottage, whence a superb view is to be had of mighty Haleakala, perhaps the very best view in all Wailuku.

The cottage, which was planned by Mrs. C. B. Wells, wife of the former manager of the Wailuku Sugar Company, herself a painter of no mean ability, is peculiarly adapted for a studio. The great arched opening on the veranda forms like a frame around the peerless scenery beyond. As Mr. Hitchcock remarked leading us up to look at the view: "Here is the masterpiece of them all, and it is not mine but nature's own."

And a glorious picture it was, with the waving palms, verdant foliage and emerald fields as a foreground, and back of it majestic Haleakala, upon which fell the glow of the afternoon sun, the clouds forming amorphous, fantastic shadows on its mighty slopes, while a garland of fleecy clouds surrounded its summit, leaving a few naked peaks rearing their dark, lofty heads toward a summer-sky of deepest azure.

On stepping inside the studio the visitors were surprised to find no less than 18 pictures in the exhibit, most of which were of the Hawaiian industry and working capacity.

In the fine collection are four studies of Iao Valley. One is taken from the beach at Paia, lying soft, warm and white in the foreground, the pellucid waters of the mighty Pacific lapping the shore; a light greyish color, vaguely adumbrated, in the shallows; farther out a transparent green, and still farther out a deep blue. Beyond lies West Maui with its green patches of cane fields, Wailuku with its beautiful valleys of Iao and Wailuku, a landscape of transcendent beauty. Weekly Times, Maui.

Maui Music Club Meeting. The annual meeting of the Maui Music Club was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Janetta Sharpe in Maunaloa valley. The club is composed of a number of girls of the younger set in Honolulu for the purpose of stimulating musical interest. The officers elected for the coming year were: Miss Myrtle Schuman, president; Miss Julia Campbell, vice-president; Miss Helen McLean, secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Geoffrey Podmore, chairman of the program committee. The girls are very enthusiastic and have many new plans and ideas which they hope to be able to work out in connection with their recitals. After the meeting adjourned refreshments were served.

Guild of St. Andrew's Cathedral Will Hold Delicacies Sale. The Guild of St. Andrew's Cathedral will hold its usual delicacies sale in the church at 3 o'clock the day before Thanksgiving. Mrs. Archibald Young is in charge of the affair. This has been the custom of the guild for years and has always been a marked success.

Outdoor Circle to Have Special Talk. The Outdoor Circle is extending a worthwhile invitation to its members for Friday evening, October 23, to hear Prof. J. F. Rock give an illustrated lecture of his recent trip through India. The meeting will be held at the University Club at 8:15 o'clock.

The Outdoor Circle has been making a specialty of its illustrated lectures and this one is expected to be the best ever. The ladies of the circle are invited to come with their escorts.

College Club to Meet Again. The College Club will hold its initial meeting of the year on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the University Club. The meeting will be in the form of an informal reception and the guests of honor will be the college women who are new in the city. A large attendance is expected.

CATS, WITCHES, PUMPKINS AND LANTERNS

HALLOWE'EN, OCTOBER 30

Everybody should see the big display of Halloween cards, favors, place cards, pies, clocks, rattles, hats, caps and everything to make the day what it is.

Take the children to see this fine show at WALL, NICHOLS CO., LTD.

The body of a young woman found in a canal at Rochester, N. Y., was identified as Mrs. Byron Andrea. Her husband identified the body.
